

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of our seven retiring women Members of Congress, women who have diligently served their constituents and paved the road for many women ahead.

CARDISS COLLINS

First, I wish to recognize Congresswoman CARDISS COLLINS, the longest serving African-American woman in Congress. Congresswoman COLLINS has worked to improve the quality of health care for women and minorities.

She has authored legislation which expanded Medicare coverage for mammographies and Pap smears which detect cervical and uterine cancers.

In addition, the Congresswoman was the guiding force for legislation which established a permanent office on minority health within the National Institutes of Health.

Not only has Congresswoman COLLINS forged the way for women and women's issues, she has also made significant strides in other legislative areas.

As chair of the Subcommittee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Competitiveness, she enacted the Child Abuse Prevention Act and the Child Safety Protection Act.

The Congresswoman's efforts also led to the adoption of the Aviation Security Improvement Act.

Congresswoman COLLINS has been the first in many of her endeavors, including:

First woman and African-American to be Democratic whip-at-large;

And, first woman and African-American to serve as chair of two subcommittees: (1) the Government Operations Subcommittee on Manpower and Housing, and;

(2) Subcommittee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Competitiveness. And the list goes on.

Our working together in Congress has been great, but it does not surpass our social and personal relationship that has grown over the years.

I met CARDISS shortly after she came to the Hill, and I was one of her sponsors for membership in both Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., and the Links Inc.—two organizations that are near and dear to my heart.

I have enjoyed sharing my family with her family. She knows that my door is always open to her, and vice versa. I have always been greeted with open arms and enjoyed her home-cooked meals * * * and there is nothing better than CARDISS COLLINS home-cooked rolls!

There is no doubt that I, along with your constituents and other Members of Congress will miss the wisdom and energy you brought to the House.

Congresswoman COLLINS, please know that we appreciate all that you have done and what you symbolize. I know that you have inspired other women to fulfill their leadership potential.

PATRICIA SCHROEDER

As the longest-serving woman in the House, Congresswoman SCHROEDER's outspoken and independent voice will be greatly missed by all of us.

Through the years, Congresswoman SCHROEDER has worked tirelessly and has demonstrated leadership in the areas of foreign and military policy, arms control and disarmament, as well as women's economic equity and health, and educational opportunity.

From 1979 until 1995, Congresswoman SCHROEDER cochaired the Congressional Caucus for Women's Issues.

Under her leadership, the Caucus launched an effort to improve women's health policies by submitting a comprehensive legislative package entitled the "Women's Health Equity Act." During the 103d Congress, several bills from this act were signed into law.

On a more personal note, I was a part of your audience during your brief pursuit for the office of the Presidency.

I have no doubt that with all of the knowledge and leadership abilities that you possess, we will definitely see you again in the political arena.

Congresswoman SCHROEDER, tonight I join with my colleagues in commending you for your many hard fought battles on behalf of the women and children of the world.

BARBARA ROSE COLLINS

As a fellow Congressional Black Caucus member, I would also like to wish Congresswoman BARBARA ROSE COLLINS well in her retirement.

BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN

Congratulations also to Congresswoman BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN, my classmate from the neighboring State of Arkansas.

Congresswoman LINCOLN, you are a bright and rising star. Good luck as you take your sabbatical to share your time with your family. Finally, though I have not had long acquaintances with the other retiring Members, I hear that there is life after office.

I hope that you will have positive and fruitful experiences whether you choose to focus on family or continue to serve the public.

Best wishes all.
